SOUTH BY SOUTHWEST ANNOUNCES NEXT WAVE OF FEATURED SPEAKERS FOR 2017

Austin, Texas – January 11, 2017 – South by Southwest® (SXSW®) Conference and Festivals (March 10-19, 2017) has announced its next batch of Featured Speakers for the 2017 event including Game of Thrones co-creators and showrunners David Benioff and D.B. Weiss, CNN political commentator Van Jones, organizational author Marie “KonMarie” Kondo, futurist Ray Kurzweil, SoulCycle CEO Melanie Whelan and more. Once again showcasing the creative cross-collaboration SXSW is known for, these speakers are leaders in the tech, film, television, business, literature, government and journalism fields.

“This programming represents global leaders using their talents as creative visionaries, and futuristic engineers advancing innovation,” said Hugh Forrest, Chief Programming Officer. “Their contributions in the fields of artificial intelligence, robotics, and the future of entertainment are just a few of the bigger-picture trends we see coming out of March 2017.”

SXSW’s next registration deadline is January 13, 2017, at 11:59pm PT. Early registrants will save $200, and select from better hotel options. New for 2017, the Interactive, Film, and Music badges will now include expanded access to more of the SXSW Conference & Festivals experience. Attendees will still receive primary entry to programming associated with their badge type but now also enjoy secondary access to most other SXSW events.

SXSW Conference programming is organized into 24 Tracks divided between Interactive, Film, Music, and Convergence, presented in a variety of session formats.
