

SXSW Music Festival - Connection, Discovery, Surprise

Additional Performing Artists Announced

October 12, 2016 - Austin, Texas - The South by Southwest® Music Festival (SXSW®) has announced additional artists invited to perform at the 2017 event. Each year the SXSW Music Festival hosts an extraordinary mix of new, up-and-coming, international, and legendary artists performing in venues around Austin, Texas. The festival is the destination for industry professionals and influencers, international media, and fans who all share a passion for new music discovery. The SXSW Music Festival's 31st annual event takes place Monday, March 13 - Sunday, March 19, 2017.

The lineup will continue to inspire and excite as the SXSW Music Festival programmers curate a wholly unique festival experience. SXSW dedicates itself to helping creative people achieve their goals. Founded in 1987 in Austin, TX, SXSW is best known for its conference and festivals that celebrate the convergence of the interactive, film and music industries. The event, an essential destination for global professionals, features conference programming, showcases, screenings, exhibitions, and a variety of networking opportunities. SXSW proves that the most unexpected discoveries happen when diverse topics and people come together. SXSW 2017 will take place March 10-19, 2017.

New for 2017, the Interactive, Film, and Music badges will now include expanded access to more of the SXSW Conference & Festivals experience. SXSW Music registrants will still receive primary entry to programming associated with the music badge, but can now enjoy secondary access to most other SXSW events. Likewise, Interactive and Film badgeholders have secondary access to most SXSW Music showcases and conference programming tracks. SXSW's next registration deadline is October 21, 2016. For more information, please visit sxsw.com. To register for the event, please visit <http://www.sxsw.com/attend>.

SXSW Music 2017 is sponsored by Sonicbids, Esurance, Mazda, Monster Energy, Anheuser Busch, Capital One, McDonald's and The Austin Chronicle.
