

2017 | Kevin Tong

Kevin Tong learned to draw in the competitive world of underground illustration. Kevin prevailed in this cutthroat community and used the experiences to help mold his illustration style. His style has been described as “clean structure with textured layers and pops of color, a mixture of the organic with crisp machine-like line work.” Kevin has been illustrating since 2005. He currently lives and works in Austin, TX.

ARTIST STATEMENT:

“It’s a real honor to do this poster for SXSW comedy because I love stand up comedy. This year’s lineup is incredibly diverse, so I wanted to choose imagery and a mood that would appeal to the universal aspects of humor. It was important for me to create a playful, carefree, spontaneous, and kinetic poster, one that would match the traits many of us like best in comedians.” — tragic.sunshine.com/
