Austin, Texas, Tuesday, February 4, 2024 – South by Southwest® (SXSW®) Conference and Festivals (March 7-14, 2025) announced the Opening Night Film Premiere will be Amazon MGM Studios' Another Simple Favor, directed by Paul Feig, whose raucous female driven comedies Bridesmaids (2011) and Spy (2015) are intertwined with SXSW Film & TV Festival's long embrace and celebration of comedy to adoring audiences. The highly anticipated follow up to A Simple Favor, sees the return of Stephanie Smothers and Emily Nelson as they head to the beautiful island of Capri, Italy, for Emily's extravagant wedding to a rich Italian businessman. Along with the glamorous guests, expect murder and betrayal to RSVP for a wedding with more twists and turns than the road from the Marina Grande to the Capri town square. The film stars Anna Kendrick, Blake Lively, Andrew Rannells, Bashir Salahuddin, Elizabeth Perkins, Michele Morrone, Alex Newell, with Henry Golding and Allison Janney.

"When we saw this film last fall, we instantly knew it had to open SXSW - it gave us that electric feeling we live for as programmers," said Claudette Godfrey, VP Film & TV. "Paul Feig and SXSW share an unmatched love for bold, fearless comedy. From that unforgettable late night screening of Bridesmaids to Spy's raucous world premiere, his films capture exactly what makes our festival special - wildly entertaining projects that push boundaries. We're beyond excited to reunite with Paul and kick off the festival with a film that had our entire team laughing, cheering, and immediately wanting to watch it again!"

"I couldn't be more thrilled to be back at my favorite festival in the world where we successfully launched Bridesmaids and Spy, and I cannot begin to say how honored I am to have our film opening it all," said director and producer Paul Feig. "I've avoided making sequels to any of my films but these characters were just too much fun not to revisit. So, to be able to have Anna, Blake, Henry, Andrew, Michele, Elizabeth, Alex and myself watch our film with the great SXSW audience is a bucket list event that I'll be able to check off March 7th and move playing drums for Dwight Yoakam's band up to the top slot."

The script, which is based upon characters by Darcey Bell, was written by Jessica Sharzer and Laeta Kalogridis. Produced by Feigco Entertainment's Paul Feig and Laura Fischer, executive produced by Jennifer Booth, Jessica Sharzer, and Marco Valerio Pugini. The film is a Lionsgate and Feigco Entertainment production.
